

The Oxford

Manhattan, New York

This mint-condition, exceptional condominium residence custom-designed by Michel Franck of Owen & Mandolfo, Interior Architecture Inc., is a stunning ten-room home perched high in the sky on the 39th floor of the Oxford, located at 422 East 72nd Street. The super-luxury Oxford, built in 1991, was designed by Emery Roth and Sons. The residence offers four bedrooms, four-and-a-half baths, a library/home office, media room, four exposures and five terraces. The entire apartment has bamboo floors and custom Wenge wood cabinetry, as well as a custom lighting and sound system wired throughout the apartment. The dramatic 42-foot living room leads onto a south-facing terrace that offers panoramic western views. The windowed kitchen has a balcony. In addition to white glove service, the building offers a pool, health club, garage, sun deck, and children's playroom. Offered at $5,100,000.
